BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

Happy birthday to the following

No Birthdays This Week

Happy anniversary to the following Rotarians:

David & Julie Yocum - 2/14 (24th)

ATTENDANCE REPORT

We had 36 members present last week with no visitors.

KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

Remember to keep the following Rotarians in your prayers: Bud Chaney, at home and still on target for a "hospital free February" and Charlie Mort Taylor who is recovering at home.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Next week on Tuesday at 11:00AM there will be a Historical Marker Dedication at the Chamber Of Commerce building. There will be a brief reception after the dedication. Immediately following the reception Rotarians are invited to the Mayor's Office for the signing of the "Rotary Day Proclamation" honoring 105 years of Rotary.

NEXT WEEKS PROGRAM

The guest speaker for next weeks meeting will be Glenn Barbour. Glen will be providing us with a "State Of The County" address. This promises to be an interesting meeting.

50 YEARS AGO (1960)

No real surprise here but Tom Leggett was Secretary/Treasurer. The club had 2 speakers during this year that spoke about the CIA (spy planes) and the FBI, makes you wonder what in the world was going on that the "Alphabet Services" were speaking here? The club was honored by a Boy Scout Troop that had been sponsored by the club for 20 years. A guest speaker that year was none other than John Field our "Hawaiian Delegate" and frequent visitor. The club had just moved to it's new home at the West End Restaurant which was one of many meeting location changes over the years. The information here and in the "Did You Know" articles in the Rotary Matters comes from a History of the South Hill Club researched and written by Frank Nanney that covered the History from 1928 to 2001. A couple of copies may still be around if anyone would like to read one.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Life is an occasion, rise to it", author unknown
